

Joshua

Chapter 11

XII. Chariots of Fire

A. We see a great army of kings in the North and they are defeated.

1. At the end of Chapter 11 we see that Israel has conquered all the land, North and South in the land of Canaan.

2. The first 11 chapters of Joshua describes one of the most successful military invasions ever.

3. Remember what was said in Deut. that they would go into a land with 7 nations stronger and more numerous than you.

4. The lesson here is that God grants victory by faith and not by flesh.

5. War horses and Chariots

B. Why is this relevant?

1. We are like the people of Israel

2. God does not just want to give us salvation...

C. Five lessons from Joshua's own campaign to help us in our campaign to claim our possessions.

1. We need to enter the battle confidently

2. We have to encourage the troops frequently

3. We must engage the enemy obediently
4. We need to endure the struggle patiently
5. We need to enjoy the rest
