

Joshua 6

I Have Seen the Glory

VII. The conquering of the city of Jericho

A. What was going through the mind of Joshua at Jericho?

1. Joshua has never fought a fortified city before (No battering rams/catapults...)
2. This is probably why Joshua was by himself staring at Jericho wondering how!!
3. The most interesting verse in chapter 6 is v. 2

B. God demands that His people see the battle through the eyes of faith

1. Even while we're up against our own Jericho's
2. Israel was victorious by faith

C. Three things faith understands about walls

1. Faith understands that we fight from victory and not for victory (v. 2)
2. Faith understands the delight God takes into feeding his enemies with foolishness (Not weapons, catapults, battering rams)
3. Faith understands that sins blight will one day be removed by the judgment of God

"We live by faith, not by sight." 2 Corinthians 5:7
